THIS WEEK (September 2)

LAST WEEK (August 26)

Mike Lang was Kiwanian of the Day and brought Denise Ward from the American Therapeutic Riding Center (ATRC) as our program. Denise gave us a first-hand look at the almost magic connection between a child and a horse.

Through oral description and video shots, Denise described the activities that unfold when a child with physical or mental problems meets a horse for a short interchange. There appears to be a change in the child's reaction and condition when they come in contact with the horse. Improvements are noted in disabilities and even attitudes toward other people around them. It proves that there is some type of communication between children and animals.

We wish ATRC and Denise continued success. Thank you, Denise, for coming to share your program with us and thanks, Mike, for arranging this informative and inspirational program.

Better attendance than usual today. Missing were: Mike Cassin, Lloyd Grigsby, Bill Grove (leave), Marshall Horn (leave), Ray Johnson, Harold Klawitter (leave), Mike Nash (leave), David Sellen, Ron Sigler (leave), Rey Vasquez, Mark Wackenhuth, Grady Whitaker, and Chrissy Whitten (leave),

We had several guests today. Mike Bagby brought his wife, Becky; Mel Graham brought Marilyn Rhodes; and Ron Grossman brought his wife, Barbara. And, hey! Did you hear the Grossmans announce that they will host our Christmas Party again this year.

THE POT AND HAPPY DOLLARS

Today's Pot was $8.50, with $9.25 carry over. Mark Wackenhuth's name was drawn but he was absent today and the week before. So now, the carry over will be $13.50.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Unless you can create an entire universe in less than 5 days, perhaps giving "advice" to God isn't such a good idea.
